Shri Bharat Rajput, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Vinod Deshmukh, counsel for respondents no.1 and 2.

Shri Deshmukh submits that Respondents No.1 and 2 have filed an application (I.A.No.1884/2002) for dismissal of the writ petition on the ground that it has become infructuous. Para 2 of the application is relevant here and quoted below:

> "That by O.M.No.CIL/C-5B/IR/LTC/SECT/1219. dated 20.3.2002 the respondent no.1 Coal India has restored the facility of L.T.C. to the employees of the C.I.L. and its subsidiary companies. That respondent no.2 is an subsidiary of Coal India Ltd., as such facility of L.T.C. to its employees have now been restored. Copy of the O.M. restoring the facility of L.T.C. is filed herein as Document (Annexure A)."

The above statement is recorded. In this view of the matter, this petition has become infructuous.

Since the reliefs claimed by the petitioners have already been granted, this petition is disposed of accordingly.
